

Ben Streitenberger tuba) is currently in his fifth year directing bands in the Washington City School district. A native of Washington Court House and graduate of Washington High School, Ben received his B.A. in Music Education from Wright State University as a Tuba Major. During his collegiate career, Ben toured Japan with the Wright State University Wind Symphony, under the direction of Dr. David Booth. He studied tuba with Mr. John Rider of the US Air Force Band of Flight and Mr. Jacob Cameron. Ben was the 2007 recipient of the WSU Department of Music's Beethoven Award. A family man, Ben married his 'high school sweetheart' Alison, and together they have a two year old daughter and are expecting a second in early June!

David Wood (trumpet), a native of Huntington, WV, has his Bachelor of Arts in Music Education from Marshall University. He has instructed music in public and private schools in Kentucky and south western Ohio including Chaminade-Julienne Catholic High School in Dayton, OH and in the Blanchester City Schools since 2009. He regularly performs with the Fayette Community Band, the Clinton County Community Band, as well as pit orchestras for many theatrical productions. David resides in the Wilmington area with his wife and sons and attends Southbrook Christian Church in Miamisburg.

Many thanks are due to the Friends of Music at St. Colman and the individuals who made the new organ possible (memorial contributions may still be made!) and Fr. Jimmy Hatfield and the people of St. Colman for their support of music and this series and their kind hospitality.

The musicians may be greeted at the back of the church following the program.
